Career Expertise at work for you

CONNECTING YOU TO OPPORTUNITY!

Sometimes, you need some help.

There are people who can just take a deep breath, grab a copy of their resumé and go find themselves the perfect job.

Not everyone can at any given point in their life; and that's where People Magic can help.

We believe that everybody has skills that an employer can use; but not every person understands what they have to offer. And if you don't understand what you have to offer, nor how to go about it; then how can you possibly succeed.

Our supportive and structured programmes are designed to provide you with skills and assistance to maximize your attractiveness to an employer and get you access to opportunities - and at the same time, we know that might sound a little scary, and we're here to help.

Flexible Solutions for your needs

EVERYBODY IS DIFFERENT!

We know that what works for someone else might not work for you.

You have different skills, different aspirations and different issues to the next person, so why would you need exactly the same help?

Perhaps you're a great internet user, so you'd like to manage your search on-line. Or perhaps you can barely turn a computer on, so the last thing you need is the stress of trying to struggle with technology while concentrating on finding the right job.

If you're uncomfortable in an office, we'll come to you. If you are nervous in interviews, we've got help at hand. If you don't know enough about the job market; we'll give you the right information.

Our model is all about supported self-help. We guide you in the things you can do; and help you in the things you find difficult.

We help you and employers understand each other.

Our consultants have large business and community networks to draw upon to help you connect where you need to

ANXIETY PROGRAMME

Whether related to your situation or because of a disorder; anxiety can keep you out of the workforce.

We have specialists who've been there and done it! Our anxiety programme offers a higher level of support and a real understanding of what you're going through.

MIGRANT PROGRAMME

If you've studied and worked in another country, often your skills and experience are differently aligned. We help you see where you need to change your skill-set, but also how you can sell your unique experience to employers who may not be aware of what you have to offer.

MATURE AGED PROGRAMME

Some people think that opportunity disappears when you're over 40. We don't! We think it changes. The skills you need when you're younger won't necessarily help you at this stage of your career. Our one-on-one tailored approach quickly equips you for the new employment reality.

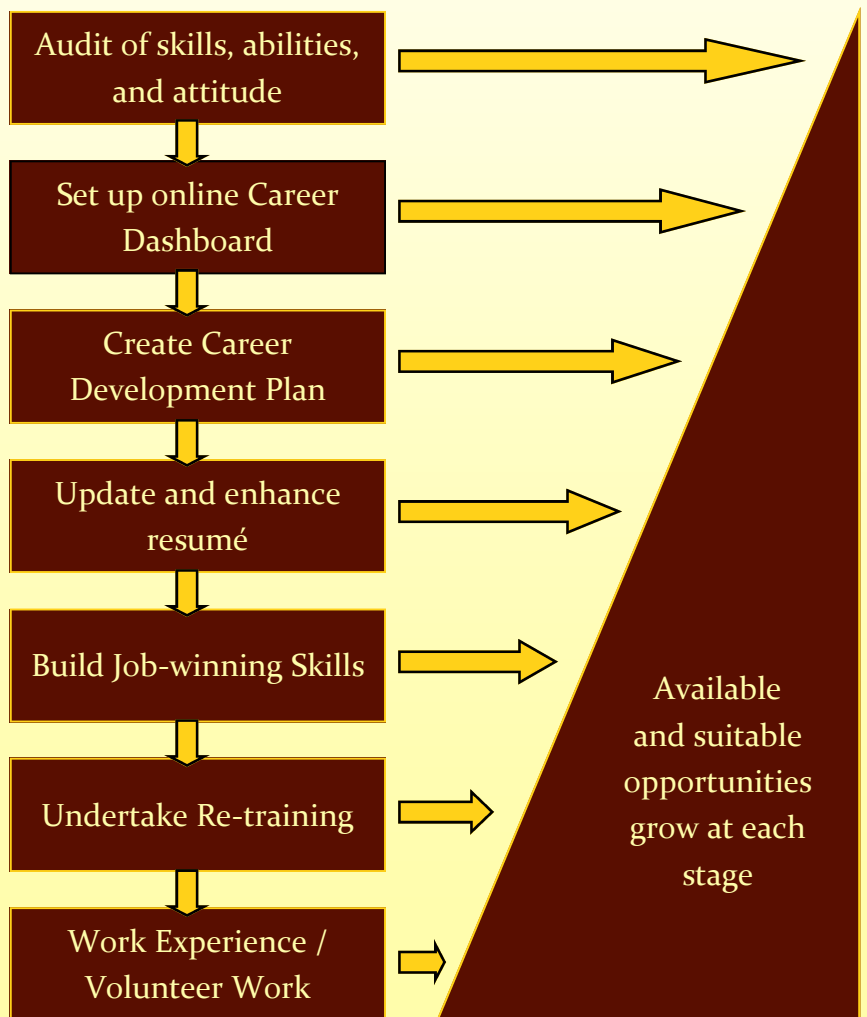

PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMME

Just because you're good at what you do, it doesn't mean you are as good as you could be at selling yourself and your skillset. Our step-by-step approach helps you to understand what you have to offer, and where you can offer it!

CAREER DEVELOPMENT PLAN

We don't believe in linear planning. Opportunity will not wait for you to be ready, nor will it just appear when you need it. Our programmes all use a "constant opportunity seeking" model
